BASEBALL SATURDAY

Amherst "Aggies" Will be the Opponents on Trinity Field.

Trinity will play her second home game Saturday afternoon when she will meet the Massachusetts Agricultural team at Trinity field. The "Aggies" have not made a very good record in the early games but have been playing fast ball lately. Brown has defeated her, 10 to 3, Vermont 4 to 2, and Dartmouth 4 to 1, while she has defeated Norwich 4 to 1, and Springfield Training School 10 to 2. Trinity has been practicing faithfully the past week, especially in base running, and will, no doubt, put up a fast game. The departure of Sayres has left a hole in the pitching staff, leaving all the work to Warner and Bleecker. As Warner starts today against Tufts, Bleecker will probably pitch Saturday.

The line-up of both teams will be as follows

Trinity	Amherst
L'Heureux, c	Davies, 1f.
Turner, 2b.	Piper, ss.
Horan, 3b.	Sherman, rf. p.
Carroll, ss.	McGarr, cf.
Brainerd, 1b.	Huntington, c.

CHAPEL REGULATIONS.

Faculty Makes a Ruling in Regard to Start.

On Wednesday morning, after a meeting of the faculty, proessor Babbitt, secretary of the faculty, posted the following notice on the official college bulletin board.

"The faculty has voted that the hour for morning chapel be fixed at half past eight, with five minutes' grace, that the service shall begin when the officiating clergyman rises in his place and that students entering after that time shall be marked absent; furthermore, that "time" shall no longer be publicly announced at the entrance of the chapel, but that the time indicated by the clock in Northam Towers shall be regarded as official."

Signed,

Frank Cole Babbitt,
Secretary of the Faculty.

Sunday Chapel.

President Luther used for his text Sunday, "He who does not believe will be damned." He emphasized the necessity, not of a particular faith, but of some belief, without which a man has no foundation for life.

'08—Perley G. Haskell died recently at his home in Newton, Mass.

TRINITY vs. AMHERST

Tennis Team Will Play at Amherst Saturday

The Trinity Tennis team will journey to Amherst, Mass., on Saturday, where they will play Amherst college in the annual match. Amherst has a strong team this year and the Gold and Blue players will have a difficult time to win. Captain Johnson of Amherst in the match with Dartmouth lately, defeated Harris, who at present holds the New England Intercollegiate championship title. From this it will be seen that the calibre of the Amherst team is high. Trinity's team will be composed of Captain Nelson, Burgwin and D. S. and A. Pulford. For Amherst Johnson (captain), Rundell, Shumway and Miller will play.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Tufts and Vermont tied with a score of 1 to 1 in a ten-inning game.

Princeton has a hard football season to play next fall. Ten games are scheduled, of which eight are on the Princeton gridiron. Harvard appears for the first time in some years on Princeton's schedule, the game to be played at Princeton on November 4.

The schedule follows:

September 30—Stevens Institute at Princeton.
October 4—Rutgers at Princeton.
October 7—Villanova at Princeton.
October 11—Lehigh at Princeton.
October 14—Colgate at Princeton.
October 21—Navy at Annapolis.
October 28—Holy Cross at Princeton.
November 4—Harvard at Princeton.
November 11—Dartmouth at Princeton.
November 18—Yale at New Haven.

Pennsylvania will probably lose "Tex" Ramsdell, the intercollegiate champion at the sprints. There seems to be some question as to his eligibility. It is the general opinion that he will take the initiative and withdraw before his withdrawal is compelled. The U. of P. will probably feel his loss heavily in the intercollegiate games this spring.

The Massachusetts legislature has been asked, by a bill recently introduced, to grant $100,000 a year to the Institute of Technology. It is hoped by friends of the Institution that the full amount will be allowed by the government, as in that way, the contributions from alumni may be turned entirely towards obtaining a new site and buildings. Such a site may be secured in the near future provided that the legislature acts favorably on this bill.

The Amherst tennis team, which plays Trinity next Saturday, tied Dartmouth last week and was defeated 5-1 by Yale.

LETTER TO STUDENTS.

Sleeping Accommodations Asked for Alumni at College.

An open letter was received by every member of the student body on Wednesday evening from Dr. Luther, requesting that sleeping accommodations for Alumni at the college during Commencement be provided if possible. The following questions were asked with the prayer that they be speedily answered either negatively or affirmatively.

(1) Do you expect to be at college after Saturday, June 24th.

(2) If you are not to be here, may your room be used by Alumni?

(3) Are you willing that your sheets, towels, etc., shall be used by our guests, on the understanding that such articles shall be laundered and packed away immediately after Commencement.

SCHEDULE WELL STARTED.

Psi U. Swamps D. K. E. In Fast Game.

In the second game of the Intra-College series, the Psi-Upsilon baseball contingent fairly swamped the men from "94" on Tuesday last in a five-inning contest. The game was played at Pope Park, before an enthusiastic multitude of rooters who taxed the police reserves to the utmost, applauding most vigorously and impartially base-hits, double-plays and errors. Nine hits for the Psi U boys and five errors charged against the "Dekes" tells the story of the 15 to-3 score. The boys of "81" fielded well, hit even better, and ran bases in a manner that would do credit to the Giants. Grint started in the box for D. K. E., was replaced by McClure in the second inning, but returned to the mound again in the third inning. Both these pitchers were hit with utter disregard to their feelings, while Woodbury, for Psi U, pitched a steady game throughout. Ward featured for D. K. E., making two double plays unassisted. Psi U was minus an outfielder, but did not worry over the fact long enough to lose the game.

The score is as follows:

INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

Trinity Will Enter Eight Men at Springfield

On Friday and Saturday of this week the Annual New England Intercollegiate Track Meet will be held at Springfield, Mass. The qualifying events will be held Friday, while the finals will come Saturday. Dartmouth is universally picked to win the meet, as she defeated Harvard in a dual meet a short time ago, and is superior to all the New England colleges. Amherst, Bowdoin and Williams will doubtless be close competitors for the second honors.

Trinity will be represented by Captain Maxon and Wessels in the pole vault, Nelson in the high jump, Hudson and Clark in the weights, Collett in the dashes, Spofford and Buck in the runs.

Maxon and Wessels will probably place in the pole vault. Dartmouth is reported to have men who can do twelve feet in this event, however, so Trinity's chances of getting first are not as bright as might be. Hudson should do well in the weights and may place in the broad jump. Otherwise Trinity's prospects for getting points do not seem very good, but it is expected that the Gold and Blue will make a larger total than at any New England Meet for some time. The team will leave on Friday morning at 11.09 in charge of Acting Manager W. S. Marsden. In the event of any of the men qualifying they will remain in Springfield over night.

As She Is Pronounced.

The English "Who's Who" provides a guide to the pronunciation of British proper names that is interesting as well as instructive. Most of us have long been aware that Cholmondeley was "Chumbly," but who would suspect that Belvoir could be called "Beever," or Gower, "Gore"? Some others in the list that excited our wonder were:

Bagehot—"Badgut."

Bethune—"Beeton."

Colquhoun—"Cohoon."

Dalzell—"Dee-ell."

Dillwyn—"Dillon."

And we were somewhat shocked to discover that Mainwaring (how many heroines of recent fiction have borne the name!) was merely "Mannerling."

'03—H. D. Brigham, W. S. Oliver '10, and W. F. McElroy '10, were at the recent Trinity-Williams baseball game at Williamstown.

ex. '03—The Rev. William Howard B. Zeigler has accepted an appointment as curate at St. Paul's chapel, Trinity church parish, New York City.

'93—Clarence C. Barton jr., has twice visited college recently. After the recent trustee meeting he stayed over Saturday and Sunday, taking in the inter-class track meet, and was also present at the Sophomore Smoker, where he delivered an enthusiastic address.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

With the arrival of pleasant weather there is the usual apathy noticeable among the undergraduates in regard to their class work. This is a fact which is regrettable, for the Trinity examinations are but a few weeks off, and now is not the time to neglect academic work. The weather will continue to grow warmer and the student who puts off now will find his task only the more difficult when the days before exams arrive.

The open letter which has been sent to all the students by the college authorities, asking that those men who are able will give their rooms for the occupancy of Alumni in June is a step in the right direction. There are many alumni of the college who live at great distances from Hartford and who feel that the expense of hotel bills in addition to car-fare, is the "last straw." Therefore they often do not come back to commencement. Under the new plan there will be a number of rooms ready for them when they arrive in Hartford, and they can be comfortably quartered at college near the scene of action. At many of the colleges in the country Alumni reserve the right to come back and use the rooms they occupied when in college regardless of the wishes of the students who may happen to live there. While this is a rather high handed proceeding, nevertheless it gives an Alumnus a sense of security that his college is always ready to receive him when he comes back, and fosters the feelings of loyalty to his Alma Mater the more strongly. It is hoped that there will be a generous response by the students to their appeal.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of The Tripod:

It was with the greatest interest that I read your plan for the betterment of Trinity athletics. It is a noble scheme. A big undertaking, it is true, but by no means impracticable, and as you intimated in your editorial, it must materialize. It is absolutely necessary for it to materialize if Trinity would gain and hold an enviable reputation in the athletic world.

Last Saturday Wesleyan defeated us in track. Suppose that we had had a cage in which to practice all winter, might not the result have been different?

Brown defeated Trinity 9-0 in baseball. The Blue and Gold was a raw unpracticed team. The weather man had done all in his power to keep it, indoors and had allowed it only two or three days of work on the diamond. If we had had an indoor place to practice batting and base running, it is safe to say that Brown's score would have been far smaller. Furthermore, the college body would now be supporting a much more finished nine than it is at present.

It is very well for people to talk about Trinity's increasing her numbers. It shows spirit, and we like to hear it. But spirit of this kind is not what is needed most. We need the active, fighting spirit, and it is good to feel that the editors of The Tripod are thoroughly saturated with it. The best way to increase our numbers is to improve our athletics; the Tripod never spoke a truer word than that, and The Tripod's spirit has evolved the scheme of an indoor athletic field.

All loyal Trinity men, graduates and undergraduates alike, want to see Trinity rank at the top. We realize that pre-eminence in athletics is of inestimable benefit to any college, whether it ought to be so or not. Your plan, Mr. Editor, is the best thing which has happened here for a long time, and I hope—I know, that the whole college is behind you. You will succeed. You are bound to. And when you have succeeded, when there is a building down there next to the gym where the athletes can practice long before the season, rain or shine, Trinity will be proud to say, "The Tripod did it." Keep up the good work.

The faculty of the University of Wisconsin has passed a law restricting fraternities and sororities from initiating freshmen and prohibiting freshmen who may be pledged, the privilege of living in, or eating at, the society houses during their first year. This rule will go into effect in 1912.

Out of 300 or more of last year's class at Wellesley, 245 are already wives or about to be.

'08—Edwin J. Donnelly has accepted the position of Alumni reporter for New York City. His address is St. Paul building, 220 Broadway.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares,
and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address
the Company, or any of its agents.

John M. Taylor, President.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

There are now 3,256 students at Syracuse University, of whom 1,566 are men, and 1,690 women. Of these 418 will graduate in June.

The seniors at Stevens "Tech" again won the inter-class track meet, this making the fourth year they have held the trophy.

Wesleyan won a twelve inning game from Norwich by a score of 6-5.

At Yale, Phi Beta Kappa elects to membership those who attain an average standing of 330 on the work of Junior and Senior years, 400 being the maximum.

The Wesleyan Junior week will be celebrated this year from May 11th to 14th, and an unusually good program has been arranged by the committee in charge.

Syracuse defeated Dartmouth last Thursday by a score of 2-1.

Pennsylvania is trying to ameliorate the hazing of freshmen. The first step to this end has been taken in deciding to allow the house of the Houston Club as neutral ground where freshmen may find refuge at all times.

Tufts was defeated by Brown on Wednesday, April 26, by a score of 3-2.
